12 little pleasures of diving

We've asked divers of all ages and levels what is the thrill, emotion, or experience that keeps bringing them back underwater. Here is what they said...

What I love most in a	dive is:
1. Flowing with a g	entle current while enjoying reef life
	TOBIAS FRIEDRICH (@below_surface_uw_photography)
2. Feeling a shive moving towards me	er run down my spine as I catch the eye of a sandbar shark e

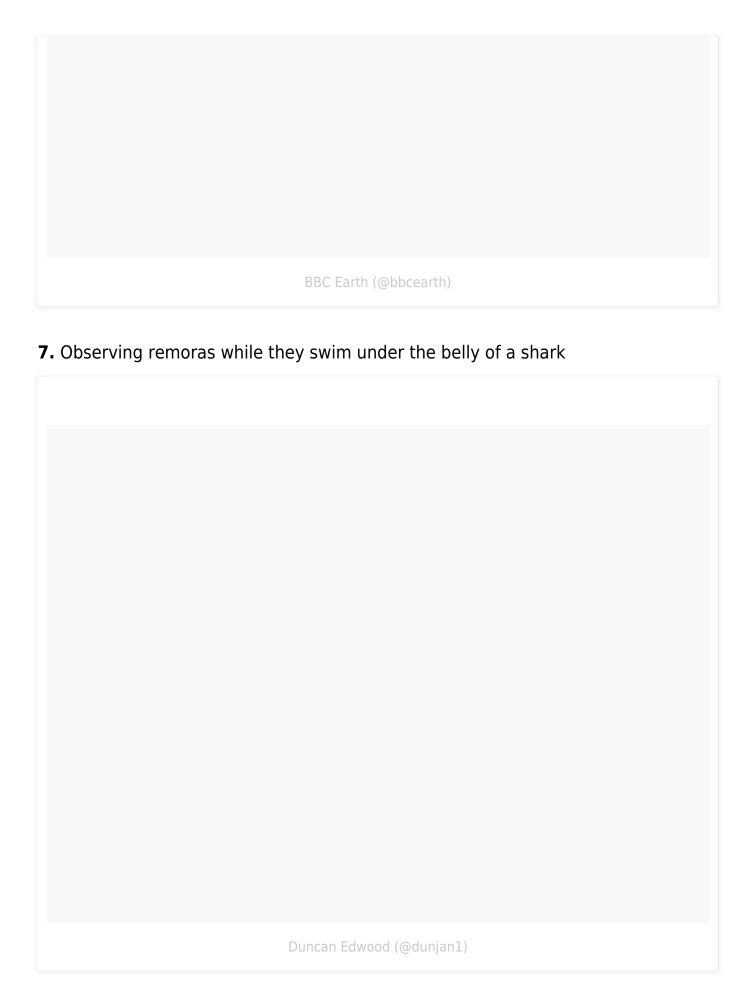

Rainbow Scuba Hawaii (@rainbowscubahawaii)

4. Seeing the wonder and amazement in my buddy's eyes

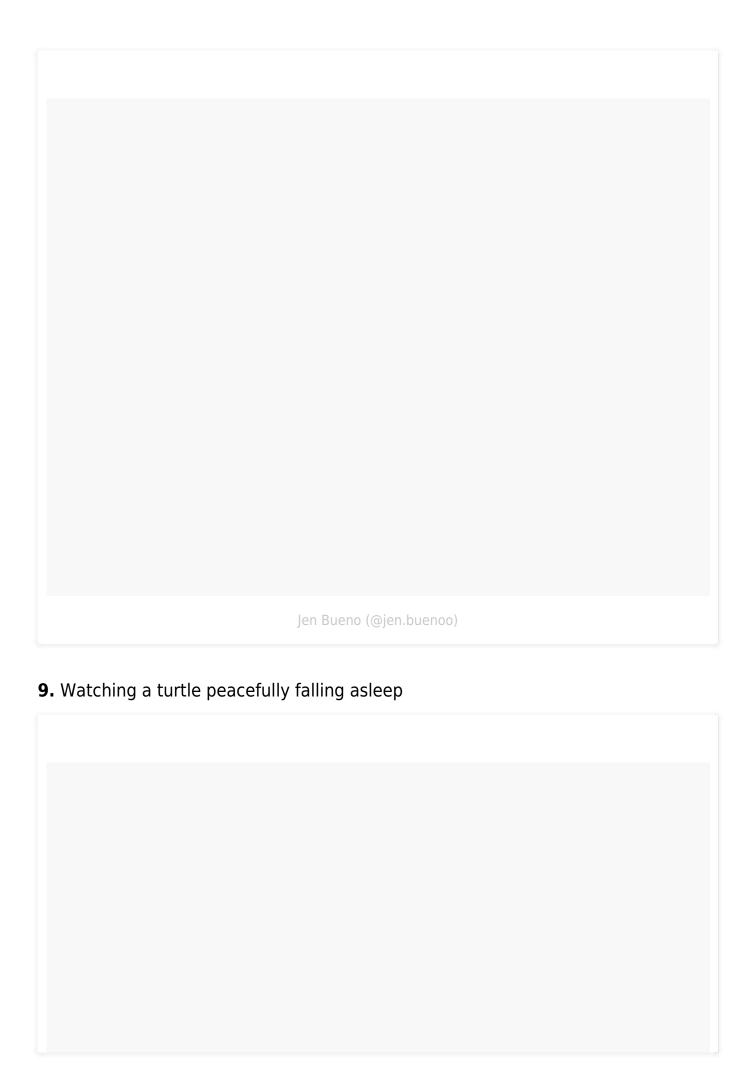

5. Rediscovering, each and every time, the incredible variety of life teeming underwater, even in a tiny speck of reef

Alex Mustard (@alexmustard1)
6. Discovering, in each dive, a marine species that I didn't know

8. Meeting a remora that mistakes me for a shark, and attaches itself to me!

	Frame	e Zero (@frameze	ro.photo)
LO. Feeling, for the	e entire dive, pa	art of a differe	nt reality
	Fabrio	e Guerin (@fabrio	ceguerin)
	. 32110	(6.00)	3
L1. Trying to swim	and move exac	ctly like the fi	sh I'm watchii	ng

